

Vehicles with fully automated capabilities are coming to Canada's roads and the current auto insurance and vehicle safety laws need to be updated to reflect this reality.

